How to get there:

By public transport

Liverpool Mutual Homes is situated in the heart of the Liverpool's heritage quarter, easily accessible by public transport. Buses stop on London Road, Lime Street and Queen's Square. Local trains stop at Liverpool Central, Moorfields and Lime Street Stations. More details on local bus and rail travel can be found by visiting www.merseytravel.co.uk. Inter-city rail services call at Lime Street Station. Leave the station by the Lord Nelson Street exit. On leaving the station turn left and walk onto Lime Street. Turn right and walk for 100 yards. Cross London Road. You are now on Commutation Row, with the entrance to LMH reception in front of you.

By car

From the M62: At the end of the M62 keep to centre lanes and join A5047 Edge Lane. After approximately 1.6 miles turn left onto Towerlands Street and then bear right onto Irvine Street. This becomes London Road. After approximately 1 mile there is a T junction with traffic lights. Lime Street is to the left and Commutation Row is to the right.

Limited reserved parking is available for visitors to Commutation Plaza and must be booked in advance. The LMH car park can be found by following the road round the front of the building, keeping in the right hand lane. At the rear of the building turn right into Camden Street. The car park gates can be seen on the right hand side. On arrival at the gates use the intercom to call Reception.

If spaces are not available at Commutation Plaza, there are three public car parks within 5 minutes walk. These are: St John's Shopping Centre (St George's Place, L1 1LQ), Queens Square Car Park (4 Queen Sq, L1 1RH) NCP Lord Nelson Street (Lord Nelson Street, L3 5QB)
